

WOMEN AND SOCIETY.

Religion," and Mrs. Louis T. Bradfield followed with a paper on "The Northern German Myth." Mrs. Adams served refreshments, after enjoying which, the Edgewood club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Louis T. Bradfield.

A number of young girls are organizing an afternoon card club. The following young ladies are requested to meet at Miss Laura Ferguson's Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock promptly to perfect plans for the club: Misses Willie Morrow, Anna Morrow, Mollie Jordan, Daisy Moody, Laura Brown, Mamie Earle, Daisy VanHoose, Janie McLeister, Daisy Lewis, Mary Johnston, Susie Martin, Maude Pearson, Emma Leedy, Hannah Elliott, Bertha Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Vaughan, of Mobile, Ala., are in the city on a visit to the former's brother, Mr. H. C. Vaughan No. 614 Nineteenth street. They spent the heated term in the mountains of Virginia and will extend their visit here until the fever situation improves so as to render it safe for their return to their Mobile home.

Mr. W. H. Wade, of Savannah, is spending a few days in the city on legal business.

Miss Grace L. Loventhal is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Louise Lettick, at Nashville, where she will remain sometime.

Mrs. Charles D. Block and son of Port Gibson, Miss., are the guests of Mr. Samuel Ullman and family, on Eighteenth street, North.

Prof. and Mrs. S. L. Robertson announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Isabella Donoho, to Mr. Richard Ajax Moody, which will occur at the family residence, No. 1223 North Highlands, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 17, at 3 o'clock. After a trip to Washington, D. C., the bride and groom will be at home at the residence of Maj. and Mrs. W. A. Moody, No. 701 Twentieth street, South. The fair bride-to-be is the daughter of one of Jefferson county's most distinguished educators and highly esteemed citizens, and is a young woman of bright intellect and many personal charms. Mr. Moody is a very popular and capable young business man of Birmingham, and holds a responsible position with the Milner & Kettig Hardware company. He has a large circle of friends both here and in Washington, D. C., where he resided previous to his removal to Birmingham, several years ago.

The members of the Cadmean Literary Circle were guests of Mrs. John London Friday afternoon. After transacting of important business matters, the members of the circle gave interesting historical and geographical items concerning Norway, Sweden and Denmark. Mrs. J. C. Henley, who has spent much time in those countries, gave much delightful information about the habits and customs of these far-away people, gathered from personal observation and experience. Mrs. London's home was beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and the first chrysanthemum of the season. After the literary programme was completed, delicious refreshments were served. The following ladies were appointed to represent the Cadmean circle at the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held at Nashville on the 21st, 22d and 23d inst.: Mesdames B. L. Wyman, William B. Leedy, Edward H. Cabanis, Robert D. Johnston and George C. Ball. The handsome club prospectus for the present season was distributed to the members on Friday afternoon. This prospectus, printed in dark blue, on thick white egg-shell paper, with this legend: "Literature to be of significance, must discuss problems." The Cadmean circle will meet next Friday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Willis J. Milner.

Mrs. Peete B. Clark and her little son, after an absence of more than a year, spent in Virginia and New York city, have returned home, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Walker.

Misses Anna May Phelan and Lulu Sharpe will go to Nashville on Thursday to enjoy Alabama Day. They will be the guests of Miss Phelan's aunt, Mrs. Harris, during their visit to the Centennial.

At the informal cotillion given by the Southern club on Tuesday evening the dance was led by Miss Anna Morrow and Mr. John Patton. About thirty young ladies and gentlemen were present. Judge and Mrs. H. A. Sharpe chaperoned the young folks.

The Belles Lettres club met with the Misses Hartwell, corner of Sixth avenue and Twenty-third street, Thursday, Oct. 14, and after a pleasant and profitable session adjourned to meet with Mrs. Parrish at the studio on First avenue.

Miss Copeland and her pupils have quite a beautiful and artistic display of China in the windows of Colby & Roll, First avenue.

Miss Copeland has designed an Alabama souvenir cup of the Confederacy, which is decidedly interesting from an historical point of view, as it has on it a likeness of the home of President Davis when Montgomery was the capital of the Confederacy. The Capitol is also painted on the cup with the Confederate flag and coat of arms of the state. The tankard, painted by Mrs. Oscar Underwood, is beautiful in its design and scheme of coloring. The miniature painting on china, by Miss Buras, of Bessemer, shows the feelings of an artist as well as exquisite taste and execution.

Miss Em Goodrich, of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Crittenden, No. 1500 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. Guy D. Blewett, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. P. Wetmore, for several weeks, returned to her home at Meridian, Miss., yesterday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Eubank have issued elegant invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Minnie Brown, to Mr. Robert Augustus McCarty Wednesday evening, Oct. 27, 1897, at 9 o'clock, at home, Elyton, Ala. Miss Eubank is a charming representative of a very influential family connection, and is a young woman of many attributes and accomplishments, which have made her a social favorite. Her approaching marriage to so successful and capable a young business man as Mr. R. A. McCarty is of interest to many friends and a large family circle.

Miss Ella Simpson entertained a number of her young friends on Thursday evening at her home on Seventh avenue, with a "Progressive Puzzle party." Miss Cards Handley and Mr. L. K. Benson won the prizes offered for the most successful puzzle workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell have returned to their home at Bainbridge, Ga., after a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Locke.

Miss Olive Olney of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of Misses Kate and Willie Morrow at their home on Seventh avenue.

Mr. Frederick Crisp, son of the late speaker of the national house of representatives, has moved to Birmingham, and is one of the bright young men of the Age-Herald staff. Mr. Crisp will prove a popular addition to the young men of Birmingham society.

The W. C. T. U. are planning a unique entertainment for All Halloween. It will be given at Dr. A. N. Ballard's residence. The witch's charms, fortune telling, tricks, etc., will contribute to the enjoyment. The decorations and refreshments will all carry out the ideas of Halloween.

Rev. Dr. D. B. Gray received a telegram last night from Mrs. D. I. Purser, announcing that her husband, Rev. Dr. Purser, who is now at New Orleans, is critically ill with yellow fever. Dr. Purser has been nursing yellow fever patients at New Orleans ever since the present epidemic began, and the tidings of his illness will be distressing news to his friends in all parts of the south.

Mr. Louis Gelders has arranged to have Tuesdays and Fridays for the ladies at his Turkish bath rooms. These apartments, recently equipped with all of the best modern appointments, will no doubt prove a popular resort with the fashionable women of Birmingham.

The following young ladies and gentlemen attended the cotillion at the Southern club Friday evening: Misses Anna Morrow, Kate Morrow, Will Morrow, Marie Nelson, Mary Linn, Mollie Sherrod, Mary Johnston, Mollie Jordan, Susie Martin, Lulu Sharp, Fannie May Bergamy, Elizabeth Lowell, Lillian Roden. The gentlemen were: Messrs. Shook, Ramsey, Going, Wilcox, Redd, Crowder, Ellis, Weisner, Walker, Ross, Koenig, Bowles, Getzmandor, Exam and Pearson.

UNIONTOWN.

The engagement is announced of Miss Daisy White, daughter of the late Dr. Thomas J. White, of this city, to Eugene Nonnemacher. The wedding will take place on the 18th of November and will be a brilliant function.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Walker, daughter of Hon. Mims Walker, to Samuel Morgan, of Blocton, will take place on October 20 at Cedar Grove, at the residence of the bride's father.

Mrs. Joseph W. Davidson, of Selma, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. C. Davidson, has returned home.

Mrs. James Chisholm, of St. Louis, is in the city, and will remain here for the wedding of her niece, Miss Daisy White, to Robert Lucas, of San Francisco, arrived on Sunday and will spend several months with his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Seiden.

ATTALLA.

P. L. Walker, J. W. Penn and son Lester returned from the Centennial Tuesday.

Rev. W. Wester, of Hoke's Bluff, was in town Monday.

Miss Birdie Vann, of Wyam, visited relatives and friends at Cedar Bluff, Gadsden and Attalla the first of the week.

Dr. Foreman has returned from a business trip to Cincinnati.

Mr. McCarver, of Coosaville, Ga., spent Tuesday with friends in Attalla.

The remains of Tom Ford who died late Tuesday evening were interred in the Bethany cemetery Wednesday. Mr.

Ford was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and five children. Rev. Chunn, of Blountsville, spent Wednesday with his friends. Dr. M. E. Butte, of Ashville, was the guest of T. C. Banks Monday.

THE DECATURS.

Capt. J. B. Hinds and daughter, Miss Floy, visited in Huntsville.

Miss Hattie Means of St. Louis, is visiting her brother, B. W. Means. Dr. L. A. Neill and brother, J. B. Neill, paid a visit to Nashville this week. The latter went up to enter Vanderbilt university.

The monthly gospel temperance meeting was held at the Christian church last Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. R. Smith chaperoned a semi-party last Wednesday night.

The party of singers and musicians were Misses Annie Lou Spight, Annie Laurie Wert, Carrie Spillman and Mrs. Emma L. Taylor.

The marriage of Miss Mary E. D. Jones to H. T. Hill last Monday took place in West Decatur in the parlors of J. M. Jones. Rev. S. P. Spiggle pronounced the marriage bans.

Today will witness the dedication ceremonies at Courland of the new Methodist Episcopal church, south. The dedication will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Tigert, LL. D.

HUNTSVILLE.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jamar at Green Grove, near this city Tuesday, their daughter, Miss Lillie, was united in marriage to Mr. George Darwin. Mr. and Mrs. Darwin left immediately after the wedding for Nashville where they are spending their honeymoon.

Mary T. Gill, of this city, and Miss Mary Ed Jones were united in marriage at the latter's home in Decatur Monday afternoon. The bride is a very popular young lady of Decatur and the groom is a prominent young business man.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. O'Neal, of Gurley, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss L. Mildred, to Mr. H. I. S. Shackelford. The wedding occurred Wednesday evening in the Methodist church at Gurley. The young couple will spend their honeymoon on a tour through a number of southern cities. The groom is editor of the Gurley Herald and his bride is a very popular young society woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Demmonbreum entertained a number of friends at their home in Patton Grove Wednesday evening in celebration of their wedding anniversary.

Miss Klaus, of Vicksburg, Miss., was the guest of honor Thursday evening at a whist party given by the Standard club.

John Pamplin, of Huntsville, and Miss Ida Pamplin were united in marriage Thursday at Fayetteville. Mr. and Mrs. Pamplin went to Moulton to make their home.

Mrs. H. B. Marts entertained Thursday night in compliment to the members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church.

Major and Mrs. W. H. Stovall have returned to their home at Stovall, Miss., after having spent the summer in this city and at Hotel Monte Sano.

State Senator W. J. Boykin, of Russell county, is visiting here.

To Persons Having Daughters or Wards to Educate.

Owing to the fact that a number of counties in distant portions of the state have failed to send in their quota of pupils to this school, I can now offer to the public at large a limited number of scholarships in the Girls' Industrial School, which offers an education for Alabama girls at a price cheaper than any school in the world.

The opportunity here in the way of a literary education, music, art, telegraphy, stenography and typewriting, dress-making, etc., is unsurpassed. Any one of the departments is worth the cost of the entire session. A girl can take the literary branches and any two industrial, together with scientific cooking. Experts at the head of every department. A faculty twenty in number, and who cannot be surpassed.

There are a few vacancies existing in the dormitory building, and quite a number can be accommodated in the best private families of the town. This place is extremely healthy and free from infectious diseases. No person is allowed to visit this locality from any infected district. Catalogue and application blanks furnished free.

$300 for Correct List

ALSO A VALUABLE GOLD WATCH AND CHAIN IF YOU SEND 10 CORRECT WORDS.

All Former Offers Expired—No Room for Doubt—Mind what we say, $300.00 for a Full Set of Answers, and a Valuable Watch and Chain if you Never before was such a remarkable offer made as this. We, the publishers of Woman's World, deliberately promise to pay $300.00 in cash for a full list of correct answers, and we further agree to give an elegant $50 Guarantee American-made Watch and Chain to you if you send at least 10 correct words. How Can We Afford To Do It? Read and learn our method. We intend to obtain over one million regular subscribers for our great magazine, known as Woman's World, and we have determined to spend all the money we have made in the past five years and all we shall earn in the next five years, if necessary, to attain this object, because we know that after we have made this extraordinary yet far-sighted investment we can easily make a profit of a million dollars a year afterward. We make our calculations upon an enormous scale. We have the money, brains and reputation to do it!

An Instructive and Profitable Contest.

What you are to do is to supply letters of the alphabet in the places of stars in the list of words given below so as to make words that are added to the description given at the right of each set of missed letters. You are to make as many words as you can to fit the definitions, but must only supply as many letters as there are stars. For example we will tell you that the full answer of No. 1 is PENNSYLVANIA, because no other letters than P, E, N, Y, V, N, A, can be supplied to make the name of a State. Again, in No. 3, for example, you must make all the combinations of letters that will give you the name of a President, and in this instance, just to give you a tip, we will mention that the list of names in the name game are: Now can you supply the words named?

If at First You Don't Succeed, Try Again.

Bear in mind, you are to receive $300.00 in cash and a $50.00 Guarantee Watch and Chain if you send a full list of answers, or you will receive the $50.00 Watch and Chain (without the cash) if you send at least ten correct words.

When you have made as large a list as you can, send us your list, with 3 cents to pay for three months' subscription. We will send you the $300.00 in cash, and you will receive the $50.00 Guarantee American-made Watch and Chain, with the understanding that, if you are not a regular subscriber to Woman's World, in accordance with our arrangements and offer as indicated when we send you the valuable $50.00 Guarantee Watch and Chain. If the committee decides that you have sent a full correct list, you shall receive $300.00 in money, also the $50.00 Watch and Chain. When you send your list of words, don't forget to mention whether you want a lady's or gentleman's watch.

YOU WILL WIN A PRIZE OF GOLD!

READ THIS. We are thoroughly reliable and our publication has been established for 10 years. In the waste basket. If you send a list of words without enclosing twenty-five cents, your letter will be thrown in the waste basket. If you send us a full list of correct words we will pay the $300.00 to the person sending the largest list. While we do not expect more than one full list, if any, we will divide the $300.00 equally if 10 or less persons send full lists, then each guaranteeing at least $30.00 to each of the others. We will send full correct lists we will pay $30.00 in cash to the others that follow and will give every contestant the beautiful and practical watch and chain which we will buy back for $5.00 if not so repossessed. It is understood that when you get the watch you shall either become a regular subscriber to Woman's World, or send the watch and chain back to us. It is further understood that if you are dissatisfied with the prize awarded you or the manner of conducting any part of this contest, you shall return what you have received and we will pay your money back, thereby guaranteeing satisfaction to you.

YOU CAN BE SURE OF A PRIZE BY A LITTLE STUDY.

This contest is honestly conducted. The only money you need send with your list of words is 25 cents, to pay for trial subscription. If you are already a subscriber, be sure to mention it, and the new subscription will be extended on the old one. If your list is correct, as per above instructions, your prize will be sent by express without delay, and if you don't feel fully satisfied that you have won at least $30.00 worth, then you need not become a regular subscriber to Woman's World, although many people imagine that our magazine is interesting only to ladies, it is in reality equally interesting to husbands, fathers, brothers and all other members of the family, yet if you desire you may have our magazine sent to a friend while the prize will come to you. Distance from New York makes no difference in bringing you your prize of money and a watch. People who live in far-away States or Provinces have the same opportunity as those who live in New York. Now, if you are interested in grasping this most remarkable offer, send your list at once, with 25 cents, silver (carefully wrapped) or 10 two-cent stamps, and your prize will be forwarded promptly. As to our reliability we refer you to Clarke's Bank, 154 Nassau St., N. Y. or to any Mercantile Agency. Address, plainly:
